Twenty years ago, this past week the Board of Elders, along with Pastor Richard Flatt, founded our local chapter of Celebrate Recovery. We are grateful for that beginning and the decades of ministry to those with hurts, habits and hang-ups. Over those years leadership included Steve and Chris Hart, Chuck and Mickey Cartwright and currently Leo & Aimee Boudreau. But the goal of discipleship and victory in Jesus remains the same.

A healthy combination of large group worship with live music, Scripture reading, sharing testimonies and occasional communion remembrances, as well as small group dynamic application of Godly principals, awaits participants. You are welcome to attend CR meetings on Mondays at 5:30 at our new, and expanding, campus at 2515 Hwy 97.

Craft and Chat /JULIET

Our first Craft and Chat/JULIET will be right after the first Women's Bible Study Thursday, Feb. 27th at 11am. Also, those working on the Quilts for Kids are welcome to come and work on those projects.

Blankets for Choices

No need to know how to sew to join the fun. If you have a machine, feel free to bring it. We will be meeting on Saturday, March 8th 9:30am-12:00pm. Sign up in the back.

Contact Frankie Zimmer if you have questions.

How about some good news for a change?

- 2. God has given us something even better... God has supplied all that we need to survive & thrive spiritually!*

I. God’s first book is natural revelation. Ps. 19:1-6

- A. It’s scope (Rom. 1:20)
- B. It’s limitations (I Cor. 2:14, 15)

II. God’s second book is special revelation Ps. 19:7-11

- A. Conversion - position Ps. 19:7a
(Heb. 11:3; Jn. 6:63; Ro. 10:17; Col. 1:13, 14)
- B. Consecration – practice Ps. 19:7b
